DO YOU BELIEVE ?

ONLY TWO THINGS CAN BRING PEOPLE TOGETHER...ART AND SPORTS. THIS IS CLEARCUTGRASS...

Clearcutgrass is a love letter to the ordinary urban kid's hopes and faith. The big house, the cars, the white picket fence, and clear cut grass. A reflection of eyes with glare in them. This is not for your entertainment. This is pure brutalist-maximalism.

Life at the most brutalist level still manages to give you lemons, and you are defaulted to making lemonade once you realise what has been bestowed upon you.

This volume is a lookbook of Andre's art throughout his adolescent years, as well as a guerilla shoot we did throughout jozi cbd to show our appreciation for the "i love jozi" looks capsule by Khumo Morojele which he debuted at an independant exhibition called THE PRICE OF GOLD, which he curated along with friends and fellow creatives. This lookbook furthermore includes disjointed images from that shoot and many more.

COULD AI EVEN DARE ?

YANKEE FITTED' IS NOT FOR YOUR ENTERTAINMENT

AI remains a threat to the fearful, never the fearless, and those prompted by Jah. This illustration is one of Morule's early works and was done minimally using the most basic smart devices at his disposal, a very daring illustration by Morule

Kgotsofalo Rantonono, is a 19-year old, Free-State born photographer and filmmaking student at Witwatersrand University. Her passion for arts and culture is felt through all that she expresses, and furthermore shows that she belongs.
